

Anaggalis 2015

Wine type: Rosé wine semi-dry, PGI Cyclades - Protected Geographical Indication

Geographical Area: Santorini

Wine Variety Composition: Mandilaria - Aidani - Assyrtiko

Vibrant pink color with violet highlights.

A nose full of charming pomegranate aromas, with distinct hints of rose and wild strawberry and cherry.

A full bodied wine characterized by a discreet sweetness, balancing perfectly with the refreshing acidity. There is a slight sense of carbon dioxide that makes the wine vivid and edgy. Delicate tannins are distinctively present. Fruity and lasting finish.

Pair it with salmon, pasta with seafood, goat cheese, and salads with fruits.

Serving temperature: 10-12 ° C

Ageing potential: 1-2 years
